

NAME, Alternate name in ()	PERSON NAMED AFTER	YEAR BEGUN	TYPE OF FORTIFICATION
Battery J.L. Kirby Smith	Colonel J.L. Kirby Smith, 43 Oh Vol., died October 12, 1862 at Battle of Corinth,MS	1862	Redan, two sides, obtuse angle
Battery Coombs (Ludlow Hill)	General Leslie Coombs, KY native, War of 1812	1861	Redan, with extra walls
Battery Bates	Brigadier General Joshua H. Bates, retired, organized Ohio Volunteers for Sept. 1862 crisis.	1862	Epaulement with three sides
Battery Perry	A.F. Perry of Cincinnati, agent who organized the local labor force.	1862	Epaulement with three sides
Fort Mitchell	General Ormsby M. Mitchel, died Oct 30, 1862 at Beaufort SC	1861	Bastioned fort
Battery Kyle	Local property owners	1862	Redan, two sides, obtuse angle
Fort Wright	Major General Horatio G. Wright, U.S. Engineers, Dept. of the Ohio commander.	1863	Hexagonal redoubt
Battery McRae	Captain Alexander McCrae, 3rd U.S. Cavalry, killed Feb 21, 1862, battle of Valverde,NM	1862	Redan, two sides, one short side
Battery Hooper (Kyle Battery)	William Hooper, gave money for construction of the fortifications.	1861	Epaulement, with three sides
Battery Burbank	Colonel Sidney Burbank, 2nd US Infantry, Cincinnati Commandant, September 1862.	1862	Redan
Battery Carlisle	George Carlisle, of Cincinnati, who gave money for construction of the batteries	1862	Epaulement with three sides
Battery Hatch	George H. Hatch, Mayor of Cincinnati during Sept. 1862.	1862	Redan, v shape, obtuse angle
Battery Buford	Major General John Buford, US Assistant Inspector General during Civil War	1863	Epaulement with a stockade
Battery Burnet (Quarry Battery)	Robert W. Burnet, President of the Cincinnati Branch of the US Sanitary Commission during Sept. 1862.	1861	Unknown
Battery Larz Anderson (Tunnel Battery)	Larz Anderson of Cincinnati, gave money for construction of the fortifications.	1861	Lunette
Battery Wiggins	Samuel Wiggins, of Cincinnati, gave money for construction of the fortifications.	1862	Redan
Battery Holt (3 Mile or Stuart)	Colonel Joseph Holt, Judge Advocate General of the Army.	1861	Modified lunette
Battery Harrison	Lieut. Montgomery Pike Harrison, 5th US Infantry, killed by N. Americans at the Colorado River, Texas, 1849.	1862	Modified redan
Battery McLean	Major Nathaniel H. McLean, Assistant Adjutant General US.	1862	Modified lunette
Battery Shaler	Dr. Nathaniel B. Shaler, property owner, father of Nathaniel Southgate Shaler	1861	Epaulement and redan
Fort Burnside	Major General Ambrose E. Burnside, previous commander of the Dept. of the Ohio.	1862	Hexagonal redoubt
Battery Groesbeck	William S. Groesbeck of Cincinnati, who gave money for construction of the fortifications.	1863	Outworks of Fort Burnside
Battery Phil Kearny (Beechwoods)	Major General Philip Kearny, killed at the battle of Chantilly, VA, Sept. 1, 1862.	1861	Modified redan
Fort Whittlesey	Colonel Charles Whittlesey, US Army Engineer and Geologist, built the first 8 fortifications in northern Kentucky in 1861.	1862	Double redoubt
Battery Lee	R.W. Lee of Covington: "who has ever by his hospitality shown himself the Union soldier's friend"	1863	Small breastwork