

Northern Kentucky Views Presents:

OWEN Owenton enjoys unusual tourist influx; Owen County live stock finish 17th in non-collegiate contest at Chicago International Livestock Show; 537 tons of ground limestone used; 2,000 acres sown in alfalfa; seven purebred Southdowns imported from England, bringing total of purebred breeders in the county to 60; Golden Hoof Club, with 139 members, organized; annual Spring Lamb Show, baby beef project and sewing project feature work of Junior Clubs.

From Kentucky Progress Magazine, January, 1930

www.nkyviews.com