HISTORY OF PLEASANT VIEW BAPTIST CHURCH

Pleasant View Baptist Church was organized on 1 June 1904 when a council of members from neighboring churches met, including J. T. Sampson of Eighteen Mile Baptist Church; Rev. J. B. Tharp, LaGrange; Rev. W.A.M. Wood, Bedford; Rev. M. D. Howerton, Milton; J. T. Wilson, LaGrange; Noel Pennell, Sligo; L. G. Abbott, Middle Creek; C. S. Bare, Poplar Ridge; J. A. Browning, Poplar Ridge; J. M. Combs, Antioch; Richard Stewart, Bedford; John Hitt, Westport; D. T. Carson, Ballardsville; and C. G. Carson, Ballardsville. near

The church minutes reflect that the official date of constitution of the church was 30 October 1904, when 15 members came from Poplar Ridge Baptist Church and J. B. Tharp was the Moderator. J. T. Wilson was Clerk. The other first members listed were D. M. Averitt, Phoebus J. Averitt, Allie B. Averitt, Chester M. Averitt, Lizzie May Averitt, Robert L. Conn, Chella Garriott, J. J. Richardson, Jennie T. Richardson, J. H. Richardson, Harriet Richardson, Emma Richardson, Irene Richardson and Flora Richardson.

The first pastor called was Rev. George W. Edens. The minutes of 5 November 1904 stated: "The Brethern of the Christian Church granted us privilege to hold services in their house until we can do better."

The first ordination services were conducted on 3 December 1904, by Brother Francisco, ordaining D. M. Averitt as a Deacon. After a sermon by Rev. Edens, subscriptions were taken for the building of a church. Bro. D. M. Averitt and Sisters Alice Sandifer, Mamie Conn and Mattie Richardson were appointed to that committee. On 31 December 1904 the Committee reported that $448.50 had been subscribed.

On 4 March 1905 D. M. Averitt and J. E. Sandifer reported a promise of $600.00 from the Executive Board of the Sulphur Fork Baptist Association. J. T. Sampson, John Hitt and Andy Crabb were appointed a committee to meet with the Church Building Committee to select a building lot. A lot was purchased from J. T. Voiers for $125.00.

On 6 May 1905 Bro. John Richardson was elected Clerk, Bro. J. E. Sandifer was appointed to the Building Committee with Bro. J. J. Richardson, who was elected Treasurer of the Building Fund. Bro. D. M. Averitt was added to the Building Committee. George W. Edens, Pastor, read a statement from the Executive Board of Sulphur Fork Association which is recorded here and reads as follows:

"We, the Executive Board of Sulphur Forks Association have investigated and taken into consideration all of the facts concerning the lumber furnished by Bro. R. L. Conn and we find that there will, in our judgment, be nothing wrong in using said lumber. And we further state that we feel that should any legal questions arise in the future, Bro. Conn would be responsible for same, thus insuring protection to the church and we hereby reassess our confidence at Wises Landing together with the Committee of this Board consisting of Bros. Crabb, Hitt and Sampson, whom we have heretofore appointed and now confirm as a Committee to represent this Board in building said house."

"Done by order of Board at a called meeting this 2nd day of May 1905. J. T. Sampson, Moderator Pro Tem; Bro. J. E. Sandifer reported $13.55 from Bro. John Hitt of Westport for the Building Fund of Baptist Church at Wises Landing. Signed by D. M. Averitt, Moderator and D. T. Carson, Clerk, Pro Tem.

On 12 September 1905 the name of Bro. John Hitt of Westport church was added to the list of organizing council members.

The members of Pleasant View Baptist Church then proceeded to build the church. Subscriptions were taken to furnish plaster for the building with work to be done by J. J. Richardson. Others to do work on the walls were Bob Rowlett, Chester Averitt and Arch Wise. Frank Joyce furnished nails for both ends of the building.

On 2 December 1905 the amount of $90.60 was collected for the salary of Pastor George W. Edens.

On 6 January 1906 Bro. W. T. Conn was elected Deacon unanimously. Motion was made for part of the money collected for paint to be used to purchase gasoline for the lights, which carried. Sunday School was organized with Bro. Robert L. Conn elected Superintendent; John Richardson as Secretary and Treasurer; Allie Averitt as Assistant. Teachers appointed were Mrs. W. T. Conn, Primary; Mrs. Alice Sandifer, Intermediate; Miss Allie Averitt, Advanced; and Mrs. Jennie Richardson, Bible Class, with Robert L. Conn her Assistant.

At a business meeting on 3 February 1906 a vote of thanks was given to Bro. D. T. Carson for fuel and contribution.

Rev. George W. Edens offered his resignation as Pastor on 31 March 1906 in order to accept a church in Virginia. Discussion then involved the purchase of church pews offered by the Harrods Creek Baptist Church for $1.00 each, which offer was rejected as it was determined there were not enough seats. Mrs. Hattie Richardson, May Averitt, J. H. Richardson, and R. L. Conn were appointed as a Committee to purchase pews.

The Pleasant View Baptist Church dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. J. G. Bow on 29 April 1906 and $260.00 was raised for the payment of the debt and to seat the church. New seats were ordered from the factory.

Rev. A. C. Hutson was elected pastor on 9 May 1906.

An organ was installed and played at Sunday School for the first time on 9 October 1906 by Miss Sarah Sandifer.

The seats were installed and used for the first time 20 January 1907 when the congregation gathered at the church but no services were held due to high water at Wises Landing.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Church selected and paid for the window glass that was installed with some of stained glass in colors and some white frosted glass.

A library was established at the church by the Conn family in honor of their daughter, Ethel L. Conn, born 3 January 1899, died 21 February 1907. Pastor A. C. Hutson brought from Louisville, on a boat, a library of 60 books, and the "Ethel Conn Memorial Library" was established. Miss Mary Averitt was installed as Librarian. (The books have disappeared, but the little bookcase remains.)

The first funeral held in the church was for the small child of Brother M. E. Kinnett on 1 August 1909. The name was not included in the minutes.

Some of the early ministers who preached or served as pastor were Reverends McMillian, Connell, Sampson of LaGrange and Rev. J. D. Wilson of LaGrange. Rev. Phillips was called and served until 4 April 1909 when he reported he was out of school and had been offered a better position in Virginia. He was followed by Rev. J. H. Padfield on 18 April 1909. Rev. W. A. M. Wood agreed to preach until another pastor was found. It is understood that he was the Associational Missionary and frequently accommodated other churches in the vicinity. Rev. J. T. Sampson aided in the revival services. Rev. B. D. Taylor of Miller's Branch preached on 3 December 1910 and Rev. J. S. Satchwell on 4 February 1911. Tradition has it that Rev. Satchwell made many return engagements for sermons and revivals and was very popular as a preacher. The next was Rev. I. T. Spillman in April 1911.

The church continued to prosper and organized a mission church in the Norfolk School called "Mission Point" about 30 April 1910 when arrangements were made to pay the pastor $60.00 at Mission Point and $115.00 for the year at Pleasant View, making a total of $175.00 a year. Services were usually held at Pleasant View on Sunday morning and evening, and at Mission Point in the afternoon. Rev. W. A. M. Wood reported that he had collected $85.00 for the last year's work at Mission Point. Then it was voted to appoint Bro. John Bell, Senior, of Norfolk School House (Mission Point) to be the Treasurer. Bro. W. F. Conn and Rev. W. A. M. Wood were appointed as a Committee to see about lights for the Mission and to arrange for Children's exercises.

On 6 May 1911 Rev. B. T. Vincent, Milton, came and was assisted by his brother, Rev. Levi Vincent of Crestwood, who became the regular pastor.

The first Clerk of Pleasant View Baptist Church was Mr. J. H. Richardson, who served until 9 May 1921. He was assisted during his absences by Mr. Chester Averitt, M. D. M. Averitt and Mr. Claude G. Carson, who was later elected moderator.

The minutes reflect that Bro. A. J. Garriott was appointed to collect money to finish paying for a communion set and to serve as Treasurer in June 1918. In January 1919, after a sermon by Pastor Bro. Vincent, business was conducted to contribute $5.00 to the Baptist Orphans Home in Louisville. Concrete steps were reported as having been constructed. In June 1919 the purchase of 50 song books was authorized. In August 1919 messengers to represent Pleasant View Baptist Church at Sulphur Forks Baptist Association were A. J. Garriott, Claude G. Carson, Will Rowlett and Cole Barrickman. Alternates were Avery Stewart, Isaac Stewart, Harry Burton, and Joe Ralston.

On 14 March 1920 after the death of Mr. A. J. Garriott a resolution was passed to express the high esteem in which Mr. Garriott was held as a member and Treasurer of Pleasant View Baptist Church. The resolution was signed by the Pastor Rev. Levi Vincent; Claude G. Carson, Moderator; and W. H. Rowlett and a copy was sent to the Western Recorder.

Few minutes were found between 1912 and 1918, but traditional information is that Rev. Levi Vincent and his brother, Rev. B. T. Vincent, supplied Pleasant View Baptist Church during this period part time. The membership list shows 11 new members in 1916, 15 in 1918, 16 in 1919, 11 in 1920, and 7 in 1921 which would prove that the church was active.

During World War I, 1913 to 1918, community life was disrupted by families moving about, but usually as one family moved out, another moved in. Later on, Sunday School was sometimes alternately held at the Baptist Church or at Macedonia Christian Church.

The minutes show that on 12 June 1920 Rev. Levi Vincent was called as Pastor with a salary of $200.00 a year. On 24 July 1920, a Women's Missionary Society was organized with Mrs. Minnie Scott as President and Mrs. J. H. Richardson as Vice President. Also, on 24 July 1920, a revival closed which had been held by Rev. Levi Vincent and Rev. James of Shelby County. Seven were baptized and three joined by letter.

After World War I, depression hit the farming communities first and the effects were reflected in church life. During the depression Years the church fell upon hard times and ministers as well as farmers found it hard to make a living. Rev. Whitmore came to the Pleasant View Baptist Church and held a revival, then camped all summer with him family on the church grounds because he had no place else to go.

The church closed for a while and as with all abandoned buildings, it was damaged by having the windows broken, and it badly needed minor repairs. Some people wanted to close the church. Mrs. Rose Craig and Mrs. Minnie Scott called upon the Baptist Board in Louisville and requested assistance. They obtained $50.00 for repairs and Mrs. Walter (Frauline Craig) Rowlett came to the meeting and prevented the church's closing. Pleasant View Baptist Church has been continuously active since then and now into the 1990's.

Recent improvements include central heating and cooling system, carpeting of the auditorium and improvement of Sunday School rooms in the basement. The American and Christian Flags were gifts from Mrs. Minnie (David) Dunlap before her death.

Music was originally played on an organ that had to be manually pumped. The piano was a gift from Miss Emma Richardson, whose family were organizing members of the church. The electric Hammond organ was a gift to the church from the family of Dr. and Mrs. Carroll (Josie Giddens) Fix. Their daughter, Mrs. Duncan (Corinne Fix) Logan, presented it after the death of her parents with a memorial plate engraved, "In memory of Dr. and Mrs. Carroll G. Fix."

Fortunately for Pleasant View Baptist Church a native son, Rev. Herman Rowlett, who was then just a "country boy" began to preach and became pastor from 1928 to 1931 until he graduated from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and accepted a large church pastorage in Louisville. Since that time, most of the pastors have been Seminary students who have fit in with local folks and usually keep in touch with some of the families long after they have graduated.

The pastors in order of dates of service of those not already mentioned are:

Van Carroll	1931-1932	Marvin Enquist	1961-1964
Ward Barr	1932-1936	David Dunn	1964-1966
R. G. Bennett	1936-1940	Nick Coleman	1967-1970
Lloyd Chapman	1940-1941	Ed Martin	1970-1971
Rev. O'Neal	1941-1942	David Overman	1971-1972
Bronnie Nichols	1942-1943	James Brewer	1972-1975
P. F. McGuire	1943-1945	Geoffrey Lacefield	1975
Bruce Whitaker	1945-1948	Kenneth Jones	1975-1977
L. A. Dickson	1948-1951	David Taylor	1977-1979
Quinton Ivy	1951-1952	Charles Groover	1979-1981
David Small	1952-1953	Steven Brown	1981-1984
Grady Summers	1953-1955	Randy Pittman	1984-1985
Donald Zuberer	1955-1957	Bobby Elliott	1985-1987
Russell Bennett	1957-1958	Jerry Stone	1987-1989
Paul Potter	1958-1960	Harold Jenkerson	1989-
Cecil Fisher	1960-1962

In August 1945 when news of the signing of the surrender of Japan came over the radio at Wisers Landing at the end of World War II, an unusual event took place. At the time, Rev. P. F. McGuire was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scott. Rev. McGuire and Mr. Scott became so jubilant they jumped in McGuire's car and drove through town blowing the horn and yelling, "THE WAR IS OVER," inviting all the people they met to follow and come ring the church bell. When a crowd from Barrickman's store and nearby homes arrived and had taken a turn at ringing the bell, Rev. McGuire invited everyone inside the church and had songs and prayers of thanksgiving.

On August 6, 1961, when Rev. Cecil C. Fisher was Pastor, a Homecoming Celebration was held and the guest minister at the morning service was former pastor, Rev. P. F. McGuire. He made note of the fact that in 1945 while he was pastor, the current Superintendent of Sunday School, Albert L. Scott, Sr., was in the Philippines, which fact precipitated the excitement he had experienced over ringing the church bell. At the afternoon service, former pastor, Dr. Russell Bennett, then Professor at Southern Baptist Seminary, brought the message and Rev. John Farmer gave the devotional. Mrs. Louis Garriott, Sr., had prepared and read the church history; Mrs. Morris Webb called the roll; and Mrs. Dudley Andrew was in charge of special music.

The 75th Anniversary of Pleasant View Baptist Church was not celebrated until 1981, although the Church was formally constituted on October 4, 1904. Rev. Charles Groover was pastor during the celebration in 1981 when Homecoming Day was celebrated.

The Sulphur Forks Baptist Association met at Pleasant View Baptist Church in 1933 while Rev. Herman Rowlett was pastor. The most recent Association in which Pleasant View was co-host with Poplar Ridge Baptist Church was in October 1983. At that time, the church history was updated and given by Clara Scott, Clerk.

Two former pastors of Pleasant View Baptist Church have become foreign missionaries. Rev. Paul Potter and his wife, Nancy, with two children were sent to Dominican Republic. The missionary and his wife were killed by the natives, but the children were not harmed.

Rev. Bobby Elliott, pastor from 1985 to 1987, and his wife, JoCarol, and two children, Chad, 11, and Emily, 10, were sent as Missionaries to Mbabama, Swaziland, South Africa, in 1987.

Sunday School Superintendents from the 1930s to the present have been Messrs. C. G. Carson, L. M. Scott, Owen Harsin, Aubrey Craig, Sr., Roy Scott, Henry Rowlett, Howard Rowlett, Albert L. Scott, Sr., Wayne Goode, and Robert Dunlap. C. G. Carson, L. M. Scott, Aubrey Craig, Sr., Henry and Howard Rowlett, and Robert Dunlap were also deacons.

Baptismal services have been traditionally held at the Ohio River, symbolic of the Baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan.

Three of the four deacons of Pleasant View Baptist Church died within the year 1985-1986. They were Messrs. Henry Rowlett, Louis Garriott, and Robert Dunlap. The remaining deacon is Mr. Howard Rowlett.
