19. census as a shoemaker by trade. Sometime between 1844 and 1846 Kremer moved to Kentucky. This can be drawn from the fact that his son was born in Germany in 1842, a daughter in Louisiana in 1844, and another son in Kentucky in 1846. By 1870 Kremer's property was valued at a high figure of $3,500. It would appear that Matthais Kremer was closely related to Nicholas Kremer (CP-55).

Three bay, two-story brick house situated at major crossroad in Camp Springs. Evidence suggests a center passage plan with two room bays under the gable roof on right half of building. Originally a single pile on lot it appears that a two-story porch was converted into an enclosed addition. External features include common bond

Originally built c. 1865 as a six-room house and expanded into a grocery and tavern during the 1880s. Census records and the 1883 county atlas seem to suggest the house was first owned and occupied by Nicholas Kremer. Born in Prussia c. 1807, Kremer was listed in the 1850		Significant as an example of brick Federal vernacular architecture in Camp Springs. Stylistically the building is anachronistic to the predominant form of German

They have chosen architecture as the primary area of signif. - yet the building does not exhibit those features of Germanic vernacular building tradition elaborated in main section 7 (stone construction, siting on hillside, double level access from ground level, etc). House is still historically associated w/ German settlement.
