

Dixie A Hotel Once Upon A Time

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thornberry have sold the old Dixie A Hotel building to Al and Mollie Mazer. At present the building located on Shelby Street, is occupied by the ASC and Soil Conservation offices and four modern apartments upstairs. Mr. and Mrs. Mazer, who operate Mazer's Department Store and also who own other rental in Falmouth have purchased this good property as another investment.

1960

This is what it looked like after the remodeling was done and The furniture was moved into the store. 306 shelby St Falmouth Ky

Conrad and Barnes Furniture and Appliance Store holds its grand opening Friday and Saturday, Dec the 9th and 10th 1960 in its new location on Shelby Street, Falmouth Ky. The new business has opened in the new building above, recently modernized by Al Mazer of this city. Notice the new all glass front, which makes the location one of the most modern on Shelby Street. The new business is located next to the Woodhead Funeral Home and is owned by Allen W Conrad and Harry Barnes.